Howdy everyone!

*Don't think that your diving has to stop just because it's getting a little cold out. International Scuba has so much going on this winter, it's ridiculous! Don't forget to put us on your list of stores to visit on Black Friday and Small Business Saturday. We will have great deals on all your favorites. And tell your friends and relatives that they can call over the phone to buy stuff for you, even gift cards! We can do gift cards in any amount. We will be having special events in November and December (more details on page 5), special non-diving classes at the store (see the details on page 3), and we now have dates for a lot of our local and international trips for 2016.
